The Classical Association of the Middle West and South, the Southern Section, will be meeting Oct. 16-18, 2014, in Fredericksburg at the invitation of the University of Mary Washington and the National Latin Exam. CAV will meet on Sat., Oct. 18th as part of the CAMWS-SS meeting.

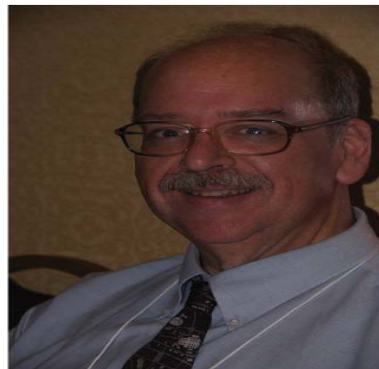

The CAMWS-SS call for papers (due June 6) is posted at <https://www.camws.org/southernsection/meeting2014/cfp.php>

CAV Award Winners Announced

The 2014 winner of the Angela Lloyd Book award is Ms. Donna Dollings, teacher at James River High School. Ms. Dollings has shown her dedication to the JCL by attending 9 national conventions and 28 Virginia state conventions. Through her years of teaching she earned multiple honors, including the Jane Crouch Reider award for Excellence in Foreign Language teaching in Chesterfield in 2000 and Teacher of the Year for James River High in 2001. Where Ms. Dollings truly shines in her relationships with her students. In the words of her nominator, "Her genuine compassion is obvious and she quickly puts all at ease. I have known her to tutor with great success students that others have given up on."

I have known her to tutor with great success students that others have given up on."

At the spring meeting Mark Keith was named as the second recipient of the Jane Harriman Hall Award for Outstanding Service to the Classical Association of Virginia. This honor comes to Mr. Keith in the same year he was named as the recipient of the Foreign Language Association of Virginia David Cox Award for Excellence in Foreign Language Teaching. Mr. Keith served the CAV as the website editor for seventeen years before turning the task over to Charlaine Lunsford last year. He is also the director for the Lurlene Todd teacher of the year award and was just named the next Vice President of the CAV.

The winner of Wayne Wray student award is Rachel Dubit from Rocbridge County High School. According to her teacher, Mr. Patrick Bradley, there is no more enthusiastic learner than Rachel and her aptitude with language and literature matches that appetite. She has studied Chinese, Latin, ancient Greek, Italian, and Hebrew. She seemed to take a real delight in every sentence of Latin and once even said she couldn't imagine a life without Latin! Mr. Bradley noted one of her greatest qualities is that while her level of academic success and knowledge put her far beyond many of her peers, she was always part of the team. Mr. Bradley received Rachel's award on her behalf since she has spent this year at the SYA program in Viterbo, Italy and will be attending The College of William and Mary in the Fall.

CAV PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Colleagues,

A good meeting in Williamsburg. Thanks to those who attended, our hosts, our speakers, participants in the silent auction, and all who worked on committees, tournaments, contests, and such. Above all, thanks to Margaret Hicks for leaving the CAV in fine shape.

For me, the meeting reaffirmed the crucial position CAV occupies for classics in Virginia. To crib from Georgia Irby's presentation, CAV is less a hub with spokes—an image overly self-serving, two-dimensional, and mechanical—than a friendly, bustling town centrally located on the crossroads leading to other cities and villages. Much of our business meeting charts the happenings within those other communities: schools, colleges, and universities; enrichment programs such as Ascanius and the Governor's Latin Academy; affiliated organizations such as FLAVA, CAMWS, APA, AIA, ACL, JCL, and ACTFL. The Classical Association of Virginia is the organization that binds us best, cutting across the falsely reified borders of public/private, secondary/university, scholarly/pedagogical, student/teacher. Hyphens suit us better than backslashes. One of the most gratifying points of our meetings is the sight of younger attendees foregoing the transient pleasures of a spring or fall Saturday outdoors in favor of the more lasting pleasures of academic collegiality.

In the spirit of collegiality, I invite you to plan ahead for our Fall Meeting on Saturday, October 18th, in Fredericksburg, in conjunction with CAMWS-SS (October 16-18). Thanks to Liane Houghtalin for her work in coordinating this meeting. There will be no special CAV speaker, in order that we might enjoy the variety of shorter talks with colleagues from other states. Finally, I would highlight two among many possible opportunities for seeing colleagues between now and our October meeting: ACL June 26-28 and FLAVA September 25-27, both in Williamsburg.

Fred Franko

CAV TEACHER PLACEMENT SERVICE

Do you know of a Latin teaching position in your area? Or are you currently searching for a Latin teaching position? The CAV Placement Service offers a free program to bring together teachers seeking Latin positions in Virginia and schools in Virginia which are seeking Latin teachers. Schools send us listings of their positions, and we send these listings by e-mail to the teachers who have registered with the CAV Placement Service. We provide continuous updates from March until September. If you know of a position available, have the school principal or personnel office get in touch with the service. If you wish a position, send in your name and e-mail address. We ask schools and teachers to contact Jon D. Mikalson by e-mail at: jdm9x@virginia.edu.

There are no charges for these services!

CAV Professional Development Grant

The spring meeting was a huge success for many reasons, including the fact that we raised even more than last year for the Professional Development Fund through our silent auction - $742! The fund allows CAV to supply grants of $100-$300 to members that teach Latin or Greek for classics-related professional development. You can find out more on the CAV website or by accessing the grant application at: bit.ly/CAVGrant. Applications are due by August 31st. Winners will be announced at the fall CAV meeting. If you have any questions, you can contact Amy Petersen at: MagistraP@gmail.com.
